An Easter Gift for your Parish

As a Parish, we rely heavily on the generous gifts you make to the Parish in the Easter and Christmas collections as well as your weekly Offertory throughout the year. These gifts provide funds needed for the programs and operations of the parish. Thank you for your generosity both throughout the year and at Easter!

Alleluia! We are witnesses to the power of God who raised Jesus from the dead. This is the theme of the readings on this holy Solemnity of Easter. The First Reading, from Acts of the Apostles, presents the Apostle Peter as proclaiming to the Roman centurion Cornelius and his household the Good News about Jesus Christ. Peter has witnessed those words and deeds and now realizes he is called to preach not only to fellow Jews but to all peoples for the forgiveness of sins. This Good News is a gift for all.

Paul's Letter to the Colossians urgently reinforces primary Gospel teachings about Christ as the source of all salvation. Paul is counteracting false teachings about the powers of angels and the necessity of ascetic practices. In this Second Reading we hear him reassuring the Colossians that they are bonded with Christ in a mystical death and resurrection.

Today's Gospel is part of a longer post-Resurrection narrative, which ends with Mary Magdalene being commissioned to preach to Jesus' disciples saying, "I have seen the Lord!" As the scene opens, we learn that Mary Magdalene came to the garden tomb before dawn. In the first-century Greco-Roman world, a night venture would have been considered strange and dangerous for anyone, but especially for a woman, but it makes her the first witness of the empty tomb. When Peter and the Beloved Disciple respond to her summons, both witness the signs of Jesus' Death—the burial wrappings—but at this moment only one "saw and believed."
