An Easter Gift for your Parish

As a Parish, we rely heavily on the generous gifts you make to the Parish in the Easter and Christmas collections as well as your weekly Offertory throughout the year. These gifts provide funds needed for the programs and operations of the parish. Thank you for your generosity both throughout the year and at Easter!

If we choose to live as Easter people, our lives will be radically transformed. This is what happened to Jesus' disciples. They went from being cowards, afraid for their lives, to bold messengers of the Gospel. The earliest Christian communities were also transformed, aspiring to live a way of life radically different from their previous one. The question for us today is whether we will allow ourselves to be profoundly transformed by the Easter message and so become revealers of God.

Today's First Reading describes the radical ideals of the first Christian community living in Jerusalem. They joined as one family, we are told, sharing all things in common so that no one was in need of anything. This sharing was no small thing, as we see, since some people sold houses and donated the proceeds. Further, we learn that the Apostles enjoyed God's favor in their powerful acts of witness.

In the Second Reading, we learn that love of God is intimately connected to the commandment to love our brothers and sisters. For those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God, one cannot stand without the other.

At the beginning of today's Gospel, we see the disciples hiding in the upper room of a house in Jerusalem. Suddenly Jesus appears before them, showing himself alive, offering peace, breathing the Holy Spirit on them, and sending them to do what the Father sent Jesus to do—to be revealers of God in the world.
